- [Woman] 2020 Founders Award- [Announcer] Founders Award. Recipients of the Founders Award are an elite group of honorees. And now, Elizabeth Lund, or as most know her, Libby joins this distinguished group. At 35 years of service to the Tennessee Board of Nursing, Libby has the distinction of being the longest-serving executive officer at NCSBN's history.

A recipient of the Meritorious Service Award and the prestigious R. Louise McManus Award, her long history in nursing regulation is marked by sustained and significant contributions to NCSBN and her Board of Nursing. Libby held the position of director-at-large on the NCSBN board of directors for two terms. She was active with NCSBN committees and chaired the Nursing Regulation Subcommittee, the 25th Anniversary Advisory Panel, the Executive Officer's Succession Resource Committee, and the Bylaws Committee.

Her ability to look beyond what is and imagine what could be manifested during her time as chair of the Nursing Regulation Subcommittee in 1995 and the Multi-state Regulation Task Force in 1996. Here, 0 (u508.15 Tr

Being an executive director is by its nature lonely. You may have followed someone awesome or you
